

Nalanda College – Colombo 10

Unit Evaluation

Grade 6

SCIENCE

Unit11

1. Mark the statements as true or false

- i) Most of the cyclones that affect our country originated in the Bay of Bengal
- ii) In a weather report the temperature is given in F
- iii) Anemometer is displaying the direction of the wind.
- iv) Humidity is a measure of rainfall.
- v) Weather is the atmospheric condition at a specified place during a short
- vi) A natural disaster called landslides is not related to rain.
- vii) Hambanthota is situated in the wet zone.
- viii) In a weather report rainfall is given in cm.
- ix) In a wind vane the arrow head is directed to the direction of the wind.
- x) If a certain area, at a certain time

PART II

2. Read the following table. Answer the questions given below.

Town	Maximum temperature	Minimum temperature
Anuradhapura	30	29
Batticalo	28	27
Colombo	30	28
Galle	31	28
Jaffna	32	30
Kandy	27	25
Nuwa Eliya	17	8
Rathnapura	26	24
Trincomalee	32	29
Mannar	33	30

- i) Which town has the maximum temperature ?
.....
- ii) What is that value?
.....
- iii) Which town has the minimum temperature?
.....
- iv) Which town has the highest temperature difference?
.....
- v) Name the equipment that helps to measure the temperature of the environment.
.....

3. Following table displays the rain fall of a city with respect to the month.

Month	Rainfall (mm)
January	45
February	10
March	100
April	110
May	200
June	195
July	202

- i) Which month has the highest rainfall?
.....
- ii) Which month has the least rainfall?
.....
- iii) What are the months that can be considered as rainy seasons?
.....
- iv) Draw a bar chart to depict the above data.