(07) Read the following poem & answer the question bellow.

TREES
by Joyce Kilmer

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

1. What does the poet compare the poem with?
2. Where does the tree look at all day?
3. Who can make trees according to the poet?
4. When does the tree wear a nest of robins in her hair?
